INTRODUCTION

The Toledo Federation of Art Societies and the Toledo Museum of Art welcome you to the 87th Annual Toledo Area Artists Exhibition! This exhibition features contemporary works created by regional artists and craftspeople. This exhibition was juried by water media artist Marliyn Hughly Phillis of Wheeling, WV and Dr. Louis Zona, Executive Director of the Butler Institute of American Art in Youngstown, OH. The jurors were faced with the daunting task of distilling 962 submissions down to the 120 works that form this exhibition.

The staff of theToledo Museum of Art and the Toledo Federation of Art Societies have devoted a great deal of their time and talent to organize and execute this exhibition. I would like to recognize and thank the following for their unending support and dedication: the Executive Board and Delegates of TFAS; Don Bacigalupi, Director of the Toledo Museum of Art; Claude Fixler, TMA Installation Coordinator; Julia Habrecht, TMA Exhibitions Administrator and all of the Museum support staff. But, most importantly, thank you to the many artists and craftspeople that have supported and continue to support this exhibition!

I hope that you enjoy the labors of our region's talent!

ADAM GRANT

2005 Toledo Federation of Arts Society Special Award

Adam Grant was born to be an artist. As a boy, he realized his calling, despite resistance from his family. "Don't ever be an artist," his paternal grandmother warned him. "It will never earn the price of your bread." But even then, growing up in Warsaw, Poland, in the 1930s, he knew better. For him, as for so many artists over time, the creation of original beauty is not only natural but necessary.

Adam Grant's story, set during one of the most terrible periods in human history, is a quiet testament to the strength of and restorative power of the creative spirit. Art saved Grant's life: first at the Nazi concentration camps, Auschwitz and Mauthausen, during World War II; then at a displaced persons camp following liberation; and finally, as a stranger in a new land. Beyond bringing personal salvation, art also provided Adam Grant a way to share his love and talent in his adopted country.

At the time of his death in 1992, Adam Grant was one of the most respected figure painters in the Midwest, a self-taught master whose work was sought by museums, galleries, and private collectors, and admired by critics and curators. And his name is forever linked to a landmark in American culture: paint-by-number masterpieces through which Grant shared his passion with others by helping them experience the joy of creation.
